

Value for Money Resources – update Sept 2010

This listing of improvement resources has been developed through the course of IEWM work with local authorities and partnerships, concentrating in particular on materials which can assist partners in strengthening their approaches, strategically and operationally, to assessing financial costs and benefits in planning and commissioning, business case preparation, options appraisal, evaluation, etc.

Section 1 provides some general references, while Section 2 covers themes such as Children, Young People and Families, Community Safety, Employment & Economic Inclusion, Health and Social Care. Amongst the latter are methods appropriate to a range of cross-cutting priorities, and often cast light on some of the trickier problems in quantifying costs and benefits in financial terms. The state of the art in gathering cost data and valuing benefits is underdeveloped – so many of these materials come with health warnings. However, they indicate some of the evidence that is available and approaches that can be adopted.

1. General references

Delivering Efficiency: Understanding the Cost of Local Government Services (CLG, 2008) includes treatment of Activity Based Costing (ABC), which starts with activities rather than with resources apportioned to department or teams and calculates the resources consumed by these. Costs are assigned and can then be converted into costs for an end-to-end process. www.communities.gov.uk/documents/localgovernment/pdf/730431.pdf

Getting more for less: efficiency in the public sector (Demos, 2009) reviews current thinking and practice on efficiency and advocates personalisation, preventative and collaborative solutions as keys to gains in effectiveness, with greater efficiency following as a consequence. Suggests wider use of techniques to establish savings for other parts of the public sector from preventative interventions, and modelling impacts and costs in the absence of proposed interventions. www.demos.co.uk/projects/redefiningefficiency

Green Book: Appraisal and Evaluation in Central Government (HM Treasury, 2003) - provides guidance on economic assessments of the social costs and benefits of all new government policies projects and programmes http://www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/data\_greenbook\_index.htm Detailed departmental guidance www.hm-treasury.gov.uk/data\_greenbook\_detguidance.htm

Innovation and value: new tools for local government in tough times (Young Foundation, 2010) – includes a '12 economies framework' for use in determining when and where to aim for 'more for less' – or 'less for less' <http://www.youngfoundation.org/publications/reports/innovation-and-value-new-tools-local-government-tough-times-march-2010>

Radical efficiency: Different, better, lower cost public services (NESTA, 2010) presents arguments and case studies involving new perspectives on old problems to deliver much better public outcomes for much lower cost http://www.nesta.org.uk/home/assets/features/radical\_efficiency

Unintended consequences: how the efficiency agenda erodes local public services and a new public benefit model to restore them (New Economics Foundation, 2007). Argues that centrally driven financial efficiency savings targets, combined with a drive towards greater competition, erode the effectiveness of local public services, with a focus short term costs rather than longer term outcomes for service users. Sets out the case for efficiencies to be gained by small-scale rather than ever-larger contracts, co-production with service users and outcomes frameworks which incorporate measures of social return on investment. www.neweconomics.org/gen/z\_sys\_PublicationDetail.aspx?pid=248
